Petaling Jaya 26/07/2009: Award-winning director Yasmin Ahmad, who passed away last night after a stroke, is finally laid to rest at 12.40pm at the Tanah Perkuburan Islam in SS20. Among the pallbearers were Media Prima International CEO Datuk Seri Farid Ridzuan. Some 100 people have turned at the funeral to pay their last respects.

Earlier, the family held solat jenazah at Masjid Abu Bakar As-Siddiq in SS19, after which, the public was allowed to pay their last respects to Yasmin.

In Singapore the late Yasmin is best known for the pro-family commercials she did for the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports. The advertisements included one that depicted a girl growing up with a single father, and another that featured a widow reminiscing about her late husband at his funeral.

Yasmin was in pre-production on a new film called Go, Thaddeus! when she died. The movie, which was to be her first to be shot in Singapore, was to be based on the story of 17-year-old Singaporean triathlete Thaddeus Cheong, who died after finishing a SEA Games selection race in 2007.

Yasmin was also due to start shooting for a project in Japan called Forget Me Not with a Japanese producer at the end of the year. Edited from Asia News Network
