M'sian director collapses

CRITICALLY-ACCLAIMED writer-director Yasmin Ahmad (above), 51, collapsed and went into a coma during a presentation she was giving at TV3's studio in Sri Pentas, Kuala Lumpur on Thursday, the Malaysian press reported.

When reached, her producer Fendi Harjoh told Life!: 'This is not the right time for an interview. But she is fine and stable and in the ICU.'

It was reported that the Malaysian film-maker was taken to the Intensive Care Unit at the Damansara Specialist Hospital. She is believed to have suffered a stroke and was in a coma for a short while before doctors there successfully revived her.

She has won awards for her sensitively observant dramas such as Sepet (Chinese Eye, 2004) and Gubra (Anxiety, 2006).

But Singaporeans know her through the successful pro-family commercials she created for the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports. Last year, she got people talking with an ad featuring a girl growing up with a single father and this year, an ad which depicted a widow reminiscing fondly about her late husband at his funeral.

She is currently in pre-production for her first movie to be shot in Singapore titled Go, Thaddeus!. She has been holding casting calls here for it, which is based on the true story of 17-year-old Singaporean triathlete Thaddeus Cheong, who died after finishing a SEA Games selection race in 2007.
